PJ Records presents...

Walk the halls of Pope John any given day and you will find nearly everyone searching for that perfect playlist to satisfy their mood. Maybe there's someone looking for something pop, a little JT or PCD, and someone else needs an alternative fix, like My Chemical Romance. Others live for the oldies, like Elvis or The Beatles, and of course, where would we be without something from the club, like 50 Cent. Throughout the pages of this yearbook you will shuffle through songs creating the ultimate PJ playlist. So kick back, relax, put on your headphones, hit shuffle, and reminisce.

Trump v.s. Rosie

Rosie O'Donnell gets racist on The View, and Donald Trump criticizes her, which sparks a feud.

Michael Richards

Richards responds to obnoxious crowd hecklers, unfortunately he himself was obnoxious.

James Brown

James Brown dies on December 25th, 2006 at the age of 73, due to congestive heart failure.

Famous Babies

Branjolina with their baby, Shiloh Jolie-Pitt, weren't the only stars to give birth. Tom Cruise and Katie Holmes gave birth to Suri Cruise.

Britney & K-Fed

In September, Britney gave birth to her second son, Jayden James Federline. Two months later, Britney filed for divorce against K-Fed. The divorce is still undecided over the custody of their two children.

Year In Review

Remember When Alan Jackson

Superbowl XLI

For the first time in Super Bowl history there is an African-American coach, not one but two, Lovie Smith of the Chicago Bears and Tony Dungy of the Indianapolis Colts. The irony of the historical event: they are both bound for the history books, the first African-American to win the Super Bowl and the first to lose it.

Snakes On A Plane

The cult classic movie is released starring Samuel L. Jackson. Though the movie didn't do as well as expected, it provided a good source for parodies, landing references on TV and Video Games.

Steve Irwin

Croiky! The Crocodile Hunter dies when a stingray attacks him, and he is pierced in the heart.

Saddam Hussein

On November 5, Saddam is found guilty of crimes against humanity and sentenced to death by hanging. The hanging took place on December 30, at Camp Justice. He was buried in Al-Awja, his birthplace.

Kim Jong-Il

In October, the dictator tested nuclear weapons underground in an attempt to flex his muscle and scare the world.

Top 5 Movies

Pirates of the Caribbean:
Dead Man's Chest
The Da Vinci Code
Ice Age: The Meltdown
Casino Royale
Cars

Gerald Ford

Ford was the 38th president of the U.S. and was the only president to be appointed under the 25th Amendment. He died at the age of 93 on December 26th.

Top 5 Albums

Bob Dylan - Modern Times
Red Hot Chili Peppers - Stadium Arcadium
Sonic Youth - Rather Ripped
TV On The Radio - Return to Cookie Mountain
Ghostface Killah - Fishscale

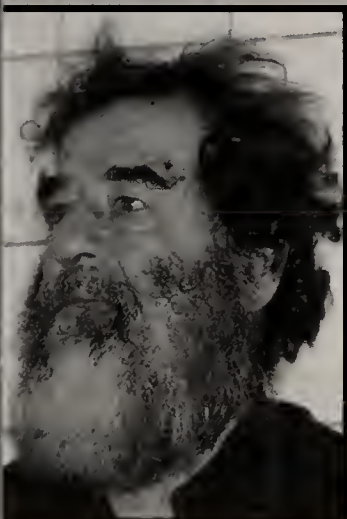

PS3 vs. Wii

In November, Nintendo and Sony release their newest consoles. Sony boasts gorgeous graphics, while Nintendo innovates gameplay.

Nancy Pelosi

With the Democrats taking back the Congress in November, San Francisco's Pelosi became the first female Speaker of the House.

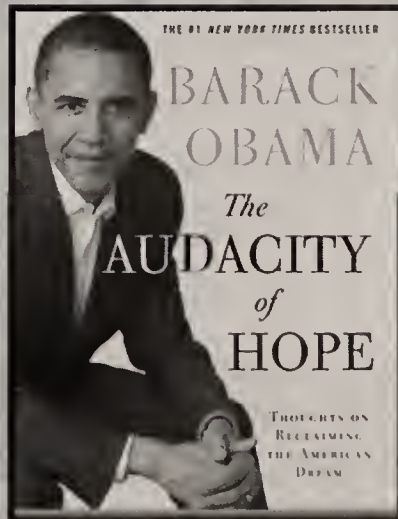

Zidane Headbutt

On July 9th, Zinedine Zidane headbutted Marco Materazzi in the final match of the World Cup. Unfortunately, this was Zidane's last moment on the soccer field, because of his imminent retirement.

Top 5 Books

The Audacity of Hope - Barack Obama
The Innocent Man - John Grisham
Born On A Blue Day - Daniel Tammet
Marley & Me - John Grogan
I Feel Bad About My Neck - Nora Ephron

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen showed off their class colors on spirit day and had a great time decorating their halls. It was a fun year with lots of new events for Pope John, including the Winter Wonderland Dance. Life at Pope John has never been more exciting!

Blowing in the Wind

Bob Dylan

54

Well, it is time to say goodbye to the seniors. We, who get to stay, bid you fair havens. You have added an energy and creativity that has many talking of a new spirit here. You became actively involved in improving the quality of life in our school. Our special events came alive under your participation. We will miss you, and we will show it by building off your brightness.

So, go, and do something important with your life. My favorite folk philosopher, Peter Maurin, said, Live your lives so that you make the world an easier place for others to be good in. You will need to take along your faith in order to do that, and you will need hope, for those are the two essential ingredients in the virtue of courage. And, you will need courage if you are going to upset, rather than succumb to the status quo.

Be good persons, first and last. It is not so much that power corrupts, as it is that people without character corrupt power. Lead, as the Bible says, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might.

And always know this, that no matter what twists and turns you take in life, you will always be welcome here. We, who get to stay, will keep an eye out for you.

Godspeed,
Dr. William Fitzgerald

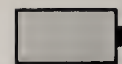

International Festival

When it comes down to cultural diversity, Pope John can't be beat. At our International Festival Night on March 8th, teachers and students showed off their own cultures. We expressed ourselves through interpretive dance, music, clothes, fashion, presentation, and food. The night ended with a bang when Andrew Fang (Paco) closed the stage with an amazing beatbox performance, which was followed by homecooked dishes from various countries in the gym. We had a great time and plan to make the International Festival an annual tradition.

Leadership Forum

Cardinal Sean O'Malley

From the sunny climate of Palm Beach to the frigid winters of Boston, Cardinal Sean O'Malley made the drastic transition to the northeast during July of 2003. Ever since, his presence has been the core of Boston's Catholic faith community.

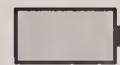

Bukeni Waruzi

In his second venture to Everett, Massachusetts, Bukeni Waruzi visited the Pope John community from the D.R.C in Africa. Waruzi's foundation, AJEDI-KA, works to prevent and rescue children fighting in the civil war. The proceeds also provide HIV testing to people throughout the Congo.

Bukeni Waruzi talks with Pope John students about AJEDI-KA and how they can help get involved...the beginnings of TAP.

David Boeri

Over the years, Boeri has become involved in almost every aspect of journalism.

He has written for the prestigious New York Times, reported on Boston's Newscenter 5, and taught at Boston University and the University of Alaska. He has also toured the world, including England where he met his wife.

by John Mayer

Representative Stat Smith

A former city council member, Stat Smith was elected in November to replace long time state representative Ed Connolley.

Edward Renehan Jr.

Renehan is listed as one of Who's Who in America, Contemporary Authors and the author of Dark Genius of Wall Street: The Misunderstood Life of Jay Gould, and John Burroughs: An American Naturalist, just to name a few. Recently Renehan has served as the chief executive officer for the Theodore Roosevelt Association.

Over the past year, we have have had numerous speakers come and discuss their success as leaders in the modern world. Through their experiences, they have provided students with examples, demonstrating how to be future leaders in the world around us.

Sonia Weitz

Sonia Weitz has been internationally recognized for her poetry detailing her experiences during World War II. As a modern day survivor of five Nazi concentration camps, Weitz has taken it upon herself to educate people around the world of the terror that was the Holocaust. Weitz, a resident of Peabody, Massachusetts, came to Pope John and talked to students about her book, "I Promised I Would Tell".

Keep away from people who try to belittle your ambitions. Small people always do that, but the really great make you feel that you, too, can become great.

The 2006 Pope John Football Team had a pretty successful season. We turned out a 6-4 record, and finished third in the very competitive Catholic Central League Small. While not much was expected of our team this season, we still shocked many and turned several heads with a great year.

The 2006 Tiger's Cheerleaders have been doing it right this year, like we have been the past few years. We became Catholic Central League Champs (again) and we won a bid to Nationals at Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The boys went 5-10-3 on the season. We almost snuck into post-season play, but fell short of a few wins. Regardless of the win-loss ratio, we had the biggest turn out of players in years, and we played with heart, day in and day out.

Boys' Basketball

This year our boys' team gained a new head coach, Dave Sacco. Under his leadership and grueling practices beginning in the summer league, we prepared ourselves for the journey towards a winning season. Although we fell short of post-season play, the same couldn't be said about...

...the girls' team. Led by Jack Feraco, our hard work and effort brought us a post-season bid. The experience was bittersweet. Though it was short-lived, the seniors were able to have their last game in tournament, while the underclassmen have developed a hunger to reach tourney again.

Newly added this year, our Video Game Club held tournaments in Madden 07, Super Smash Bros. Melee, Fifa 07, and Wii Sports, among others. We brought fierce competition while maintaining a sense of community for students of all interest to mingle, as well as skill rankings from n00bz to the elite. Newspaper Life Behind The Mercury

Meet the Editors

*Headlines
The Living End*

Maria Alfonso Lay-Out Editor

Jennifer Kearney Editor-In-Chief

The Mercury, our school newspaper, underwent a change in leadership this year, in both the advisor and the editorial staff. We tried to stay school related in our stories, but the newspaper tapped into student insights on everything from the latest video games and the hottest movies to world events and international affairs.

Diversity Club

The still relatively new Diversity Club has become an important and very active club at Pope John. At the meetings, we planned out events, like the annual talent show, and spoke of how we could improve the quality of student life in our community.

Film Club

Liana and Jessica are laughing at the hilarious movie quotes discussed during Film Club meetings.

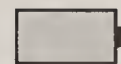

Founded last year, the Film Club has come out again this year in full force! We watched movies from various genres and a myriad of themes. As always Mr. O'Brien encouraged us to reach out to new kinds of film and in the process helped expand Pope John's cultural knowledge.

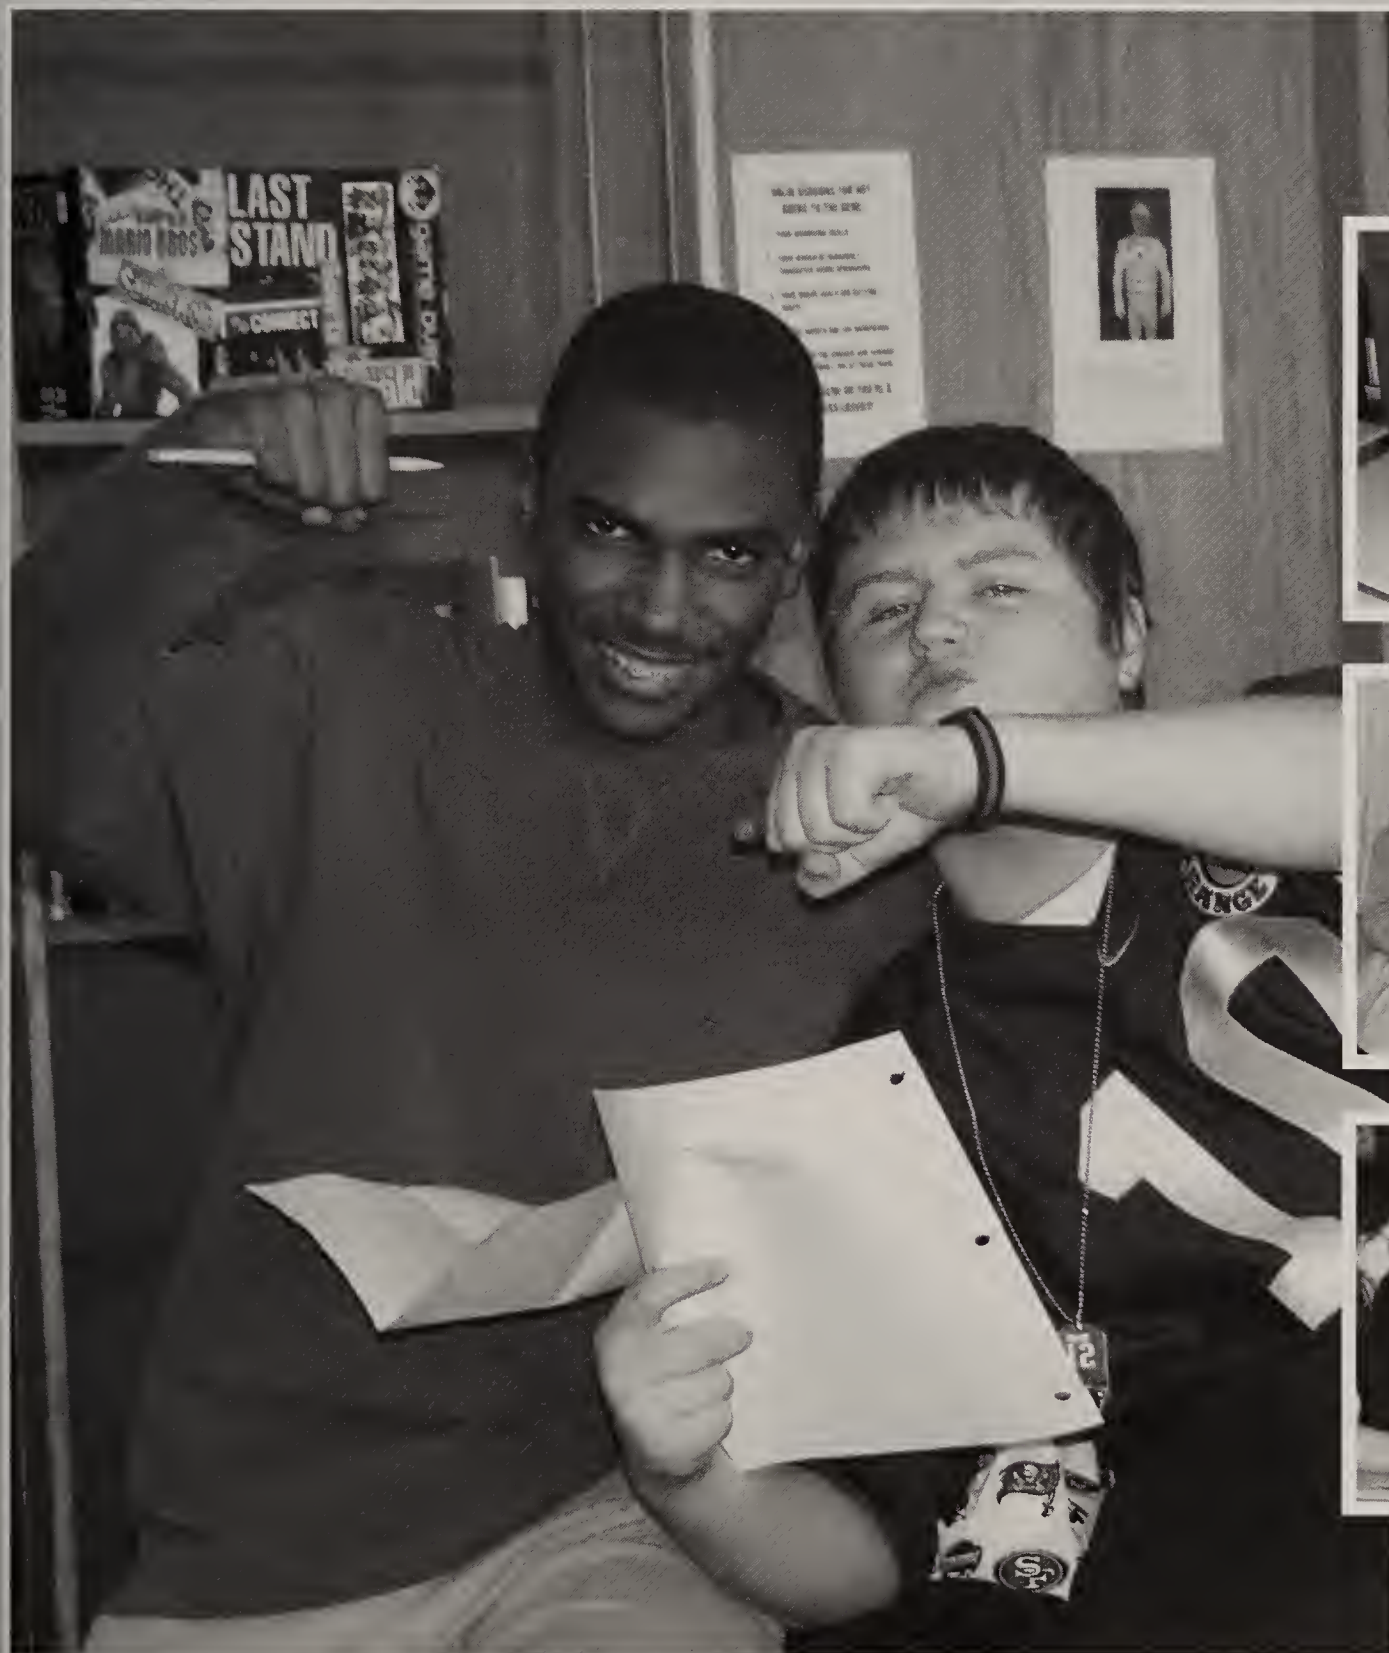

"Welcome To The Black Parade"

Creative Writing

All around students are diligently turning their ideas into masterpieces.

The Creative Writing Club sure has made their mark this year. Also moderated by Mr. O'Brien, we wrote and shared our own stories, poems, and music, offering an understanding place for all us emo kids to vent. We also read from our personal favorite authors and poets, and commented on movie scripts, and song lyrics.

Steeped in recent PJ history, this year we have attempted to carry on a happy tradition of self-expression, rhythm, dance, and always fun. Performing at the fall pep rally and the International Festival gave us the opportunity to share our joy with the whole school.

Drama Club

This year we are preparing for one of our most anticipated musicals yet, the Disney Channel phenomenon "High School Musical."

With the guidance of Mr. Jones and Ms. Higgins, the class officers and representatives worked diligently with our student body officers to make all of the '06 -'07 events a huge success. Spirit Week in October and the Winter Wonderland dance in December were just two of the new events we sponsored this year.

School Spirit week began with Wacky Tacky Day, and what a crazy day it was! from clowns to cross dressers, nothing was off limits for PJ students!

Class Color Day

Dark Blue

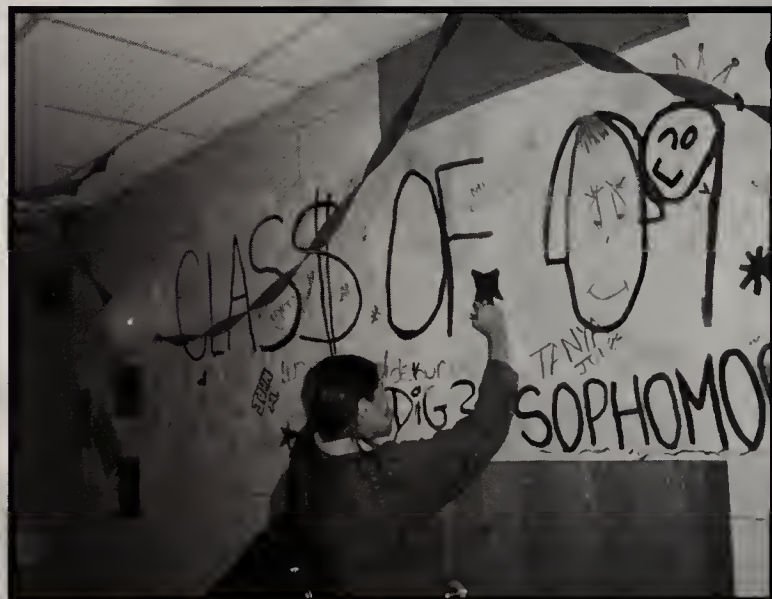

Jack's Mannequin

No one could deny that Class Color Day was an absolute success! With the freshmen looking rosy red, the sophomores looking cool blue, the juniors looking sweet in green and pink, and the seniors looking fierce in black and silver, each class showed off their individual spirit and originality. Each class creatively decorated their assigned hallways with spirit and vigor, putting in extra hours and effort after class. Although the seniors were undeniably champions in the end, each class put in a great effort to make it a day to remember!

This is WAR !!!

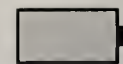

HALLOWEEN DANCE & HAUNTED HOUSE

With the help of Ms. Higgins and Mr. O'Brien, the Haunted House and Halloween Dance both made for a night to remember. We kicked off the night with the Haunted House which was a monster smash, and concluded our night with the Halloween Dance which was held in the gym. With an array of costumes and decorations, a bumpin' DJ, and the prizes given out for best costumes, the night was a fright, but delivered delight.

While your growing years have gone by so fast for us, we look forward to the present and future memories which in our hearts will always last. May all your dreams come true. Love you always, Mom and Dad XOXOXOXO

Dear Kim,

We are very proud of your achievements and perseverance. It wasn't always easy but you made it!

Love Mom, Dad, and Kris

Congratulations Jenna. We are very proud of you. Keep up the good work. Love Mom, Dad and Joey.

Michelle,

Your future lies before you. Walk the path that was intended for you, the one that is right for you. We're here for you every step of the way. Congratulations!

Forever and always proud, Mom, Dad, and Matthew

Tuve el privilegio de disfrutar de mi bisnieto en una de las facetas mas tiernas e inolvidables- sus tres añitos en adelante. Hoy que recuerdo tus inocentes besitos, juegos y risas despanpanantes al mirar tu programa favorito, los Simpsons, le pido a Dios que te bendiga en tus estudios universitarios y siempre.
Te ama tu abuelita, Rosita

We are very proud of you. The hard work has paid off, but the best is yet to come. Dream BIG, work hard and make a difference- ten you will be truly successful. Help others, enjoy life, and NEVER compromise on the things that really matter-then you will be truly happy. A bright future is waiting- go get it!
Love, Mom and Steve

From your Dad who is with you, always- by Auntie Elaine:

You have grown to be your own man and I have been proud of you since the day you were born. But, don't forget about the people who love you and where you came from. Nana, Pap, Uncle Bobby and I love you now and always. Remember to keep us close to your heart.

You are the bestest big brother and I love you very much. I'll miss you when you go to college. Who will play games with me???
Love you, Katie

Peter,

You are our champion. We could not be more proud of you!
Congratulations and Good Luck

Much Love, Mom, Dad and Steph

Congratulations to all the seniors. You all worked so hard to be where you are today. Each one of you made a special bond with people in this school and you must cherish it. Good luck in your future and always keep your Tiger pride.

Tori,

It seems like yesterday you were that adorable little girl carrying her backpack on the first day of school. And now you're graduating high school and heading off to college to start your amazing journey...

You've had a fantastic high school experience so go forward with enthusiasm & confidence. Keep close the friendships you've made while embracing all the new experiences and relationships that await you. Remember, your family is here for you and God's love is always with you.

Congratulations, we are very proud of you and love you!
